EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

12 September 2004

(U) National HBCU/MI Conference (U) (MCMR-AAU).

The US Army Medical Research and Materiel Command's Associate Director, Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization, will participate in the National Historically Black Colleges and Universities/Minority Institutions (HBCU/MI) Conference, which is being held at the Hyatt Regency, Washington D.C. The week long conference coincides with the White House Initiative on HBCU, whose mission is "To strengthen the capacity of HBCU/MI to provide excellence in education." Some of the topics to be discussed include Federal Funding Opportunities, Technology, Homeland Security, and Health Care Disparity Issues. The target audience includes HBCU/MI Presidents and Chancellors, Sponsored Research Administrators, Corporations and Foundation Officials and Federal Agency Representatives.

This is another opportunity for the USAMRMC ADSADBU to not only represent the command, but also identify those HBCU/MI that are capable of participating /competing for MRMC grants and contracts.
